

HISTORICAL PROJECTS

Company Experience and References – Below, please find projects which we have performed, along with references for each project.

- Project: Christ Church Cathedral – 45 Church Street, Hartford, CT
Project Reference: Herbert Gordon – Clerk of the Works
45 Church Street, Hartford, CT
860-380-6558
- Project Overview: Erected in 1825, this Brownstone Church is located in the heart of Hartford. Our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as casting of finials, cutting and pointing, brownstone patching, Dutchmen's, installation of new stone, cleaning, epoxy injection, caulking and painting. Managed and oversaw subcontractors, such as scaffolding, flat roof and slate roof installation.
- Project Cost: $2,200,000.00 +/-
-
- Project: Wiener Residence – Indian Harbor, Greenwich, CT
Project Reference: Donald Baerman – Architect
42 Wayland Street, North Haven, CT
203-288-8911
- Project Overview: Built in 1899, the Indian Harbor Mansion was designed by Carrere and Hastings, the architect of the New York Public Library. Work performed on this mansion included re-stuccoing the entire house, Spanish tile repair, Flat roof repair, flashings, gutter, painting, terra cotta patching and replacement, waterproofing, carpentry and building of stone sea walls.
- Project Cost: $2,100,000.00 +/-
-
- Project: Calhoun College @ Yale – New Haven, CT
Project Reference: Dimeo Construction Company
75 Chapman Street, Providence, RI
401-781-9800 – Craig Bolton
- Project Overview: Historic dormitory at Yale College. Our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as setting scaffolding, roofing balconies, removing stone, re-setting stone, cutting and pointing, epoxy injection, painting, carpentry, cleaning and caulking.
- Project Cost: $2,333,000.00 +/-

Project: Asylum Hill Congregational Church – 814 Asylum Ave, Hartford, CT
Project Reference: Donald Baerman - Architect
42 Wayland Street, North Haven, CT
203-288-8911
Project Overview: Established in 1865 and included parishioners such as Mark Twain, Asylum Hill Church is one of Hartford's Largest Brownstone structures. Our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as, cutting and pointing, brownstone patching, Dutchmen's, installation of new stone, cleaning, epoxy injection, caulking and painting. Managed and oversaw subcontractors, such as scaffolding, slate roof contractor, and lightning protection.
Project Cost: $1,800,000.00 +/-

Project: Harbor Point – 200 Henry Street, Stamford, CT
Project Reference: Rich Wooley – Harbor Point Development
One Dock Street, Stamford, CT
203-644-1590
Project Overview: Established in 1900, our firm performed the restoration to the façade of 200 Henry Street. The owner received a historic grant and all work was performed using historic restoration methods. Our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as, cutting and pointing, patching, scaffolding, brick replacement, sheet metal repairs, cleaning, caulking, etc.
Project Cost: $1,400,000.00 +/-

Project: Soldier & Sailors Monument – East Rock Park, New Haven, CT
Project Reference: Andrew Lessard – Architect
2321 Whitney Avenue, Hamden, CT
203-281-1350
Project Overview: Built in 1887, this granite monument towers over 110 feet in height and is located on top of East Rock Park and overlooking Interstate 91. Our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as cutting and pointing of all interior and exterior masonry joints, epoxy injection, painting, carpentry, cleaning and caulking. Removed the entire upper section of the monument with a crane and reinstalled the existing granite with a new anchoring method. Managed and oversaw subcontractors, such as conservator for sculptors, scaffolding, crane operators and lightning protection.
Project Cost: $750,000.00 +/-

Project: Trinity on Main – New Britain, CT
Project Reference: Ann Pilla – Owner
69 Main Street, New Britain, CT
860-229-2072
Project Overview: Originally built in 1891 as Trinity United Methodist Church, work on this project consisted of slate removal and replacement, flashing removals and replacement, flat roof replacement, scaffolding, cutting and pointing, cleaning, caulking, painting, etc. We subcontracted the slate roof installation to R&S Construction.
Project Cost: $600,000.00 +/-

Project: Christ Church Episcopal – West Haven, CT
Project Reference: Donald Baerman - Architect
42 Wayland Street, North Haven, CT
203-288-8911
Project Overview: Established in 1729, Christ Church is the second oldest Episcopal Church in the state and considered the mother church of central Connecticut. Our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as, cutting and pointing, patching of cast stone elements, replacement of cast stone elements, Dutchmen of cast stone elements, brownstone patching, Dutchmen's, installation of new stone, cleaning, epoxy injection, caulking, scaffolding, roofing and painting.
Project Fees: $250,000.00 +/-

Project: Bushnell Park Arch – Bushnell Park, Trinity Street, Hartford, CT
Project Reference: Antonio Matta – City Engineer
Department of Public Works, 525 Main Street, Hartford, CT
860-522-4888 ext. 6523
Project Overview: Built in the 1800's, the Bushnell Park Arch is the signature structure of Hartford. Our firm performed the restoration to the peak of the monument. Work included scaffolding, cutting and pointing, cleaning, patching, rebuilding of brownstone and caulking.
Project Cost: $200,000.00 +/-

Project: Plumb Memorial Library – 65 Wooster Street, Shelton, CT
Project Reference: Paul Bailey – Architect
110 Audubon Street, New Haven, CT
203-776-8888
Project Overview: Built in the 1880's, this brownstone library is on the national register of historic projects. Our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as cutting and pointing of mortar joints, cleaning of façade, patching of stones, slate repairs, caulking and painting. Managed and oversaw subcontractors, such as conservator window contractor and scaffolding contractor.
Project Cost: $250,000.00 +/-

Project: Grove Street Cemetery – 227 Grove Street, New Haven, CT
Project Reference: Bill Cameron – Maintenance Supervisor
227 Grove Street, New Haven, CT
203-787-1443
Project Overview: Built in the 1700's, the Grove Street Cemetery is the first chartered cemetery in the United States. Our firm performed decorative brownstone patching of the front entrance, cutting and pointing of the wall, rebuilding of the wall and cleaning of the wall
Project Cost: $700,000.00 +/-

Project: Amherst College – Sterns Steeple – Amherst College
Project Reference: Bruce Davey – Engineer
Besier, Gibble, Norden
130 Elm Street, Old Saybrook, CT
203-388-1224
Project Overview: Located on the campus of Amherst College, our firm self performed all aspects of the façade restoration, such as cutting and pointing of all of the exterior masonry joints, stuccoing the interior of the tower, carpentry, epoxy injection, painting, cleaning and caulking. Managed and oversaw subcontractors, such as conservator for scaffolding and lightning protection.
Project Cost: $200,000.00 +/-

Project: Church of the Redeemer – 185 Cold Spring Street, New Haven, CT
Project Reference: David Thompson – Architect
1211 Chapel Street, New Haven, CT
203-624-4266
Project Overview: Work on this project consisted of slate removal and replacement, cutting and pointing, membrane repairs to gutters, painting, caulking and scaffolding.
Project Cost: $200,000.00 +/-

Project: Saint John Baptist Church – Main Street, Essex, CT
Project Reference: Richard Bergmann – Architect
63 Park Street, New Canaan, CT
203-966-9505
Project Overview: This historic church is located in the heart of Essex, CT. The work on this project consisted of rebuilding stone parapet walls of the steeple, spot pointing the entire church, repairing slate and tile roofs and re-pointing stone.
Project Cost: $150,000.00 +/-

The above is just a sampling of the many historic projects that we have performed throughout the years.